4 PEOPLE DIE IN TERRIFIC STORM

Damage Will Reach Thousands of Dollars

SIX STATES AFFECTED

Crops Ready for Harvest Are Destroyed

By United Press

Four persons were killed and thousands of dollars property damage caused by torrential rain and electrical storms which swept Kansas, Arkansas,

Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota, according to United Press dispatches today.

Slain by Lightning

Two men were killed and a woman severely injured near Omaha by lightning bolts during an electrical storm and cloudburst which leveled crops and wrecked farm buildings in this section.

A woman was killed by lightning at Pittsburg, Kansas, and a coal mine foreman electrocuted when he came in contact with a live wire, knocked down by the storm.

The Kansas wheat crop, ready for harvest, suffered heavy damage from cloudbursts which caused already overburdened streams to send fresh floodwaters over wide areas.

Eastern Colorado was swept by hail, which damaged hundreds of acres of growing crops.

Arkansas River Rising

The Arkansas river was reported rising to new high levels at points in Kansas and Arkansas, where thousands of acres of rich farmlands are already inundated.

A number of homes were wrecked at Wichita, Kansas, by high winds which accompanied the rainstorm.

Several towns in Kansas and Arkansas were cut off from communication with the outside as a result of flooded highways and broken telephone lines.

DODGE HEAD OF HOSPITAL BOARD

Term of Washburne Automatically Expires

Rather, he said, than break a precedent established in John W. Gates original trust agreement for Mary

Gates hospital, J. H. Washburne, resisted, tendered his resignation as president of the board of directors of the institution, effective June 1, he said today.

Cites Trust Agreement

Fred P. Dodge, chosen to succeed

Washburne as president of the hospital board of directors, has been active in the administrative affairs of the institution since his election to the board and has taken a personal interest in needs and improvements at the hospital, officials said today.

Dodge is general superintendent of the Texas Company's Port Arthur refinery.

The president referred to by Washburne holds that members of the board of directors of the hospital shall be selected from superintendents of the refineries here, the mayor of the city, the postmaster, superintendent of the Kansas City Southern railroad, the collector of customs and presidents of the Merchants National and

First National banks.

When acts of incorporation for Mary Gates hospital were recently taken out, this clause in Gates' agreement governing the selection of the hospital directorate was recognized with a clause in the incorporation act stipulating that precedence should be given the officials named by Gates in selecting new directors for the hospital.

Resignation follows Re-Election

Although Washburne's commission postmaster had expired, and S. L.

Dunn was appointed in his stead, the hospital directors re-elected Washburne president of the board for another 12 months' term. His resignation followed.

Queen's Blazing Coronation Jewels Arrive

New Quarter Centennial Edition to be Published Sunday, July 1

WHEN THE NEWS' Quarter Centennial edition is exhausted, no copy may be had at any price. The edition cannot be duplicated. When printed and circulated to subscribers and to those wanting additional copies for mailing to friends and relatives in other states it will pass into history.

The edition is unique of its kind. In preparing its wealth of historic data of Port Arthur, then and now, and of Sabine, Nederland, Orange and other communities, The News has clung consistently to the theory that while the edition will be larger than has been attempted in many larger cities over the country, it is not too large for Port Arthur.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS of intimate history of one of the most progressive groups of communities in the United States has been compiled. Many of these episodes are as thrilling and interest-compelling as fiction.

Yet, being true, they are stranger than fiction.

Who was the first white child born in Port Arthur?

Where did LaFitte, that strange admixture of patriot and pirate find a harbor when solely pressed by gunboats more than a hundred and ten years ago?

What strange sorcery of another world, as he claims, spoke to him and told Arthur Stillwell, builder of the Kansas City Southern, where to locate his road and found a city destined years later to be the nation's fifth port?

What was the legend of Lake Sabine? Its tragic story of an Indian Princess of hundreds of years ago, fame of whose beauty reached a king of Mound Builders who sought her as his wife? And of the radiant prince who came to her, and his love at her feet and in a boat sped away across the lake? Or the witch spell which destroyed them, this deed in turn anguished the Moon Spirit and causing destruction of her people on ground where Port Arthur now stands?

What is the story of the building of Port Arthur ship canal which halted it with the seven seas of the building of which Col. George Goethals once said it was a greater undertaking than the building of the Panama canal?

THESE AND A HUNDRED MORE articles will appear in the Quarter Centennial edition. While the reminiscence strain appears strongly in the narratives, as is proper to an edition of this kind, Port Arthur and its record and its institutions which made of it a city of 40,000 in 1923 from 22,000 in 1920 is amply covered.

Reservations for extra copies at the rate of 10 cents per copy with order should be made at once, before the press run is exhausted. The Quarter Centennial edition will appear Sunday Morning, July 1.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Atchison was the favorite stock in which food in the way of every attempt in the stock market to start a new era of a general selling movement. Professionalism met considerable success in depressing groups like the majors, tires, sugar, and oil, which are affected by doubt relative to the liquidation in the market. A whole lot was thrown by Atchison's advance.

No indisputable were the reasons set forth as to why the system's common stockholders were entitled to a dividend that is a share now, revealing that investment buyers are ahead persistently throughout the market.

This accumulation gave the market background of confidence that bears' pressure could not wear away. The market closed irregular; closing prices:

THICK AS SMOKE BURN OUT FIRE TRUCKS

WACK, June 15.—A swarm of thick smoke from the tower of the administration building at Baylor University here at sunset one evening caused a general alarm to be turned in to the fire department.

The swirling mass of smoke coming from the tower gave the appearance of smoke and an over-cautious precaution turned in the alarm.

Traffic jams resulting from the movement of the fire apparatus lasted for several hours and Chief Meers who was caught in a jam was forced to abandon his car and make the call on foot.

CROKER'S WIDOW WINS WILL CASE

Court Finds No Proof of Illegal Marriage

DUBLIN, June 15.—The jury in the Croker will case today returned a verdict in favor of Mrs. Hula Croker.

The verdict also absolved Mrs. Croker from having to pay any of the costs of the trial.

Richard Croker, Jr. and other heirs brought suit to break the will of the late John of Tammany Hall, under the terms of which his fortune was left to his second wife, Hula, a former Oklahoma girl of Indian ancestry.

It was alleged that Hula had influenced the "boss" in his declining years to cut off his children by his first wife.

In his summing up of the case, the lord chief justice who presided, pointed out that there was no proof that Hula had ever been married to Malone, and that therefore there was no ground for the allegation that her marriage to Croker was illegal.

Attorneys for Hula attacked the contending heirs, charging that after they had been defeated in America in one attempt to blackmail her character, they transferred the scene of action to Ireland where she was among strangers.

PHYSICIAN HAS NEW METHOD OF REDUCING HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

High Blood Pressure is one thing that every insurance company looks for in its examination. When it is present you cannot hope to be passed. The company will refuse to insure you. You are a bad risk. Yet many people have high blood pressure and do not realize it.

If you have frequent headaches, dizzy spells, poor stomach, ringing in ears, palpitation of the heart, you may have high blood pressure. It is in itself a symptom that usually indicates that your system is clogged with poisonous wastes. Before relief can be had these poisons must be eliminated.

A well-known physician who has given years of study to the subject of blood pressure discovered a new formula that reduces blood pressure in a natural way by acting upon the cause. This new preparation has been remarkably successful in thousands of clinical cases, even those of years standing that it was decided to discontinue it through local druggists under the name of Bi-Lin with a guarantee to return the purchase price to any rare case that was not wonderfully benefited by the very first bottle.

Bi-Lin easily and quickly drives out the poison and lowers Blood Pressure in Nature's own way.

It is mild, pleasant and harmless in its action and brings within a few days a wonderful new feeling of vigor and power.

Bi-Lin can be had in convenient tablet form from all good druggists, Corner Drug Store, and Klee's Drug Store, adv.

IS LLOYD GEORGE COMING BACK?

Baldwin Has Had Fight, Sir Charles Ross Says

By SIR CHARLES ROSS, Bart. (Copyright, 1923, by United Press.)

LONDON, June 15.—The deplorable sudden breakdown of Mr. Bonar Law's health excited respectful and universal sympathy, even among opponents.

In some ways, undoubtedly, the Baldwin government may be stronger than its predecessor. That is not to say much. The shadow of premature death was on the Bonar Law administration from the hour of its birth.

The slogan of "tranquillity" is not precisely the watchword of vigorous health; the strong man wants to do things, to assert himself, to leave his mark on the country. Unless the Baldwin government proves more vigorous and more alert than its parent, it cannot hope to last its full term and put up a good fight against its labor and liberal opponents.

Top Heavy Lords.

One weakness of the Bonar Law government was that it had too much top-heaviness in the house of lords, and too little weight of metal in the commons.

Mr. Baldwin may probably think it unwise to reconstruct too much, for its colleagues are not brilliant, are at least encephalic.

The reaction of the new administration on domestic politics will soon be visible. Conservatism will be more confident, simply because they have a leader who is physically in better trim than their late chief. Labor is left very much where it was—that is to say, putting its fingers to its nose and making unmanly noises. It is the liberals who will benefit most from the change; for the retirement of Mr. Bonar Law is the final breakup of the coalition.

Resume Warfare.

The Law-George partnership, although broken off two years ago, had left its marks on the present parliament; men do not so easily forget their old associations and comradeship. But Mr. Baldwin owes nothing to the partnership.

WOMEN RETIRE AS CITY'S BOSS

Petticoat Rule Ends in Texas Town

JEWETT, Texas, June 13.—More than 100 women have come into their own again. Woman has dropped the scepter of municipal reign and returned to her proper place.

Feminine rule in Jewett and her sister town, Thayer, Kan., is over. Husbandly wouldn't tend to the homes, so the wives rebelled at looking after the official business.

For two years, the fair sex controlled the destinies of Jewett and Thayer. Its administrations were replete with civic improvements, beautifying programs, movie censorship and wars on bootleggers and tax dodgers.

The male citizenry unanimously agreed the "petticoat brigades" handled affairs far more efficiently than their predecessors had ever done. And the ladies admitted it.

But taking care of husbands, washing children's faces, tending up the living rooms and keeping towns cared for, was way too much responsibility. So the women refused to run again when their terms expired.

They're through with politics, they proclaim to all the world. In fact, say they, the men put one over on them in the first place—by electing them.

Jewett boasts it was the first municipality in the country to try the experiment. Then Thayer copied.

Mrs. J. T. Addison was mayoress of Jewett. Her councilmembers were Mrs. R. H. Evans, Mrs. W. R. Dotson, Mrs. Cookley Evans and Mrs. F. P. Harrison.

Over in Thayer, Mrs. Abby H. Forest, club woman, mother of three children, held forth in the mayor's office. Her council consisted of Mrs. Eunice Rush, Miss Alice Lamberson, Mrs. Iva Cross and Mrs. Daisy Savaze. Mrs. Harrie Brewster was police judge.

Collecting taxes was the biggest job in Thayer. Texas taxation laws are lenient. Tax evasions were numerous, this said. Lots of folks balked on paying.

Mayor Addison saw it differently. And now Jewett holds the all-American record. Every delinquent is back in the town's good graces.

Major Addison was appointed town marshal. During the two years, he didn't have occasion to make a single arrest. The housewife had but one occupant.

That was a bootlegger who dared show his face in town. And, oh, what the women did to him! He hasn't been seen in Jewett since he got out of jail.

And now the husbands are back in power. And the wives in their kitchens.

"But we showed them how," the women declare. "Now let them go to it. We proved women could govern and govern well."

A woman's place really is in the home. We're through with the bogus dominion of politics. The men shirked their civic responsibilities and showed them off on us. They didn't do a thing but vote.

"Now let them do some of the work."

Fort Worth Postal Receipts on Slump

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 13.—Postal receipts of Fort Worth for the month of May slumped lower than they had been since September, 1931.

This was due to the beginning of the oil fraud trials and the issuance of fraud orders against oil promoters by the postmaster general. It was believed.

The May receipts totaling $110,491.50 were $85,830.45 less than the receipts for April, $122,510.10 less than the receipts for the peak month of March, and $80,771 less than those for May of last year.

DEATH OBLIGED HIM

GENEVA, June 13.—Summoning up a statement before a court in which he was charged with murdering his wife in order to obtain insurance money, a man named Strumer shouted, "May Almighty God strike me dead if I am guilty."

Strumer immediately fell dead. Death was due to "cerebral agitation."

11 JURORS MUTINY AND WON'T EJECT WIDOW

ATLANTIC CITY, June 13.—Eight men and three women jurors Friday refused to elect Judge Pettit when he ordered them to return to an election verdict against a widow—Mrs. Nellie Black, just out of a hospital after three months' illness.

Although the judge threatened the 11 with fines or imprisonment, they calmly walked out of the courtroom. Some of the spectators cheered and the hat was passed for the woman who hadn't paid her landlord, Joseph Barry, a politician.

So far Judge Pettit has neither fined nor jailed any of the wilful 11.

LUMBER FAMINE NEAR IN TEXAS

Area of 12,000,000 Acres Is Reduced to 1,500,000

AUSTIN, Texas, June 13.—In an appeal to the legislature to provide funds for starting reforestation on cut-over lands, W. Goodrich Jones, president of the Texas Forestry Association, cited figures to show that the state is threatened with a famine of domestic lumber. He said:

"A great calamity is threatening the state of Texas within the next 10 years, and whose evil consequences the present legislature can in a measure obviate. Within the next decade most of the great lumber mills will be forced to shut down and junk their plants. The millions of dollars that for years have been distributed for labor, to the railroads, for county support, and in the founding of some fine cities in East Texas, will soon cease their golden flow and be but a memory of the prosperous past. A generation ago we were possessed of an inherited area of some 12,000,000 acres of virgin pine, while today we are threatened with a famine of home-grown lumber, there being only some 1,500,000 acres of virgin pine forest to cut.

"We recommend that the legislature take a trip through East Texas and see the havoc that has taken place there. Lumber in the future will be prohibitive for men of small means, as the freight alone from the Pacific coast is now over $20 per thousand feet. As each farmer in Texas uses on an average of 2000 feet of lumber per annum, we can readily see who is going to pay the $10,000,000 or $15,000,000 freight bill per annum for imported lumber.

"We are laying a tax on our people, when we have millions of acres of idle forest lands, that once grew a timber product that for years has gone out to all the ends of the world, leaving us now in famine straits.

"Consumption without reproduction, waste, fires and destruction by bugs, have all contributed to this unfortunate condition. We have at least 4,000,000 acres of cut-over forest lands lying idle and unproductive that should be made to grow another timber crop for our children. Large acres of these lands are burned over annually, killing the young seedling pines and consuming the soil's humus. All conservative and patriotic citizens of Texas are today united in the urgency call that Texas take some action on reforestation. The Texas Forestry Association asks for an appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of some large bodies of these cut-over lands, so that the state department of forestry can initiate the work. This must not be looked upon as an expensive item, but as an investment, as the land once in new forests will in from 25 to 40 years yield the state some 200 per cent dividends on the amount invested. No time is to be lost, if the children of the present generation are to enjoy the fruits of this wise act of restitution.

Flying Kite Cripples 2 and Darkens City

GREELY, Colo., June 13.—Kite flying with a copper wire by an unknown boy here resulted in the injury of two persons who came into contact with the live kite wire and the plunging of the entire city in darkness for nearly an hour.

Chas. Archer, 15 years old, on his way home noticed a brilliant spark in a clump of weeds. Mistaking the flash for that of a lightning bug, young Archer investigated and grasped a thin copper wire which the kite flier had used and which was now tangled with a high voltage circuit.

Archer was knocked unconscious and pedestrians notified authorities. "Coe White, a fireman, was sent to remove the wire and in hunting for it in the weeds, accidentally touched it and was rendered senseless."

When the superintendent of the light plant, A. H. Storey, was called, he ordered the current cut off while removing the danger, and Greeley was in darkness during the operation. Archer and White were not seriously injured.

TUCSON, Ariz., June 13.—Shippers here report heavy consignments of tomatoes from the west coast of Mexico, with several train loads a day passing through Tucson for distribution east and west. DENVER, Colo., June 13.—Implicit obedience of the law caused the death of Bob Hall, 60 years old, of 3431 Wewatta street.

Hall was subpoenaed to appear as a witness in the west side court against Jack Davis, charged with assault. Although he was ill of pneumonia and confined to his bed, Hall promptly responded to the command of the law. He did not understand his illness was a sufficient excuse for his failure to appear.

It required Hall two hours and fifteen minutes to make his way from his home to the west side courthouse. Arrived at the building, he collapsed and died in the county hospital. Physicians said his heart had been overtaxed.

CLARK READER TIME-BLUE GIRL

Woman's Club Leader Says She's 'For' Her

CHICAGO, June 13.—The modern girl will make a better mother than her old-fashioned sister. She is a peach and true blue.

This is part of the tribute paid to the much-maligned flapper, by Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, while in session here.

"Because the modern girl faces her problems much more frankly than did her mother, we are inclined to call her forward and bold," said Mrs. Winter. "But she is a peach and I am all for her. She has the courage and conviction to do what her mother and grandmother failed to do."

"To find out the caliber of our so-called flapper, we need only to read of women in ages gone by. We find them gamblers, drunkards and what not. But the girl of today—well, she is able to take care of herself. She is leading the life she does because we have made the conditions under which she must live and rear her children."

Mrs. Winter said bobbed hair and short skirts were to be commended. They are part of the freedom of the modern girl, who, while she might appear flippant at times, was thoroughly sound and equipped to hold her own place in the changing world.

The federation will ask for stricter enforcement of laws against the sale of narcotics and malicious books.

Willing to Compromise

As he walked up to the bar he pulled up his collar with both hands and straightened the old red tie that was trying to creep around under one ear. The bartender glanced at him and then went on clipping lemon peel into a glass.

"Why," said the man with the red tie, "it makes me right sick to think about it."

"What?" said the bartender, "water?"

"No, sir; the anxiety displayed by the people of the state in regard to preventing the battleship Texas to a suitable port. It is a disgrace to our patriotism. I was talking to W. G. Cleveland this morning and we both agreed that something must be done at once. Would you give ten dollars toward a silver service to be presented to the ship?"

The bartender reached behind him and took up a glass that was sitting on the shelf.

"I don't know that I would give you ten dollars," he said, "but here's some whisky that I put some trouble in by mistake this morning and forgot to throw it out. Will that do as well?"

"It will," said the man with the red tie, reaching for the glass. "And I am also soliciting aid for the Cuban patriots. If you want to assist the cause of liberty and can't spare the cash, if you could rustle up a glass of beer with a fly in it, I would—"

"Trot out, now," said the bartender. "There's a church member looking in the back door, and he won't come in till everybody's here."

"RIDICULOUS"

The following conundrum was left at the office yesterday by a young man, who immediately fled:

"Why is the coming Sunday like a very young baby?"

Answer: "Because it's neck's weak."

We do not see any reason why this should be the case. It is impossible for Sunday or any other day in the week to have a neck. The thing is printed merely to show what kind of stuff people send in to the paper.

TOM SIMS SAYS

Shut your mouth and open your eyes. Now, that's the way for a girl to catch a June groom.

These food flies wouldn't be so bad if they had sense enough to eat and go on back home.

Our idea of a fine job these days would be sitting on a cake of ice waiting for it to melt.

You never can tell when we will have a flood. Let the children learn to swim this summer.

People going on picnics to forget everything usually forget even the salt for the eggs.

Find a bridge. Jump off and break a leg. A very effective method of staying single this June.

Chairs last longer if tacks are placed upright in the seat.

A porch swing may stay still, and still go a long ways toward landing a prospective husband.

Washing the hands in gloves protects the skin wonderfully.

The honeymoon ends when the furniture store collector begins.

Pitching horse shoes would be a nice game if blowing tobacco wasn't such a bad habit.

We took this hand away from the Indians. Eskimos, better not start anything these hot days.

A common dog is the safest watch dog. Get a valuable dog and burglars may steal him.

To keep a new table, photograph or piano looking nice, make the family wear rubber heels.

Save old electric light globes. Very valuable for scaring stray cats at night.

Our expert opinion is that the man who calls sweat perspiration doesn't know much about it.

Faint heart never won fair lady, but faint light has won fair lady many a faint heart.

Men are not always superior to animals. A horse can switch his tail to keep the flies off.

Get out to jail for 30 days. Then you will escape marrying during the dangerous June days.

Many women have been broken up by men wanting to sit on the front porch in their bare feet.

Shoot a flag pole and don't come out until July. This is a simple way of staying single.

Next summer, when it gets so hot, why not sit on the grass and let the sun roast you.

NORTHLIFFE SENDS A MESSAGE

Sir A. Conan Doyle is in America. He journeyed from New York to San Francisco to get in touch with the talking shade of the late Lord Northcliffe, famous English publisher who died some months ago. Dr. Doyle was successful. He received a message saying that only a wave of spiritual reform can save the world from plunging headlong into a catastrophe which will make the world war seem insignificant.

Lord Northcliffe made no mention of his reception by the powers that be in the other world. He did not say anything about the dramatic, financial, food or political condition. He did say that the American people are too busy.

"That was the mistake I made in my life," wigwagged the spirit of Northcliffe on the other side to Sir A. Conan Doyle on this side. "I was too busy then but I understand now that wisdom is lost in the scramble for material progress. When men lose wisdom they invite disaster."

Reads like old stuff. They were saying it in the days of Tut-Tut. Really the Northcliffe message, as it was received by Dr. Doyle, is without ginger or pep and it's neither grippy or holding. Northcliffe had an opportunity through the mediumship of Doyle to have turned in the biggest scoop since time began.

As it is he never mentioned Soviet Russia, the League of Nations, the Japanese menace, the yellow peril, the dark shadow over East India, the flight and the massacre of the Armenians, the decline of the German mark, the occupation of the Ruhr valley by the French, the tobogganing of Lloyd George, the effect of Governor Al Smith's decision on the ice market, or a thousand and one topics or subjects which Northcliffe would have interested himself in had he been on this side and not the other side of the invisible plane.

Now an American publisher called across the divide as Northcliffe had been called, if placed in communication with Dr. Doyle, would have said something of real interest to the plain people and would have exhausted his descriptive powers telling just what they are doing and saying and how they are acting or how they look in the country of his habitat.

A pacifist must have won the confidence of Northcliffe and controlled him while he was wireless his coming war disaster prophecy to the man who used to turn out the best detective stories in the world.

When it comes to real up-to-date news from foreign countries a thoroughly trained American publisher or correspondent knows what to say and how to send it.

A western senator wired the president to recommend a nation wide campaign for the restriction of sugar purchasing. A buyer's strike on sugar might lead to sympathetic strikes on everything else. This is what happens when one labor organization goes out. Other labor organizations catch the striking spirit. It is the psychology of sympathetic suggestion. What would happen to the cotton grower if the spinners and millers inaugurated a buyer's strike of raw material? Women are responsible for the strike of sugar buyers and sellers report sales 30 per cent less than a year ago. This is one way to hit a profiteer where he lives.

PIGMIES OF THE RACE

Minnesota is to select a candidate to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Knute Nelson on June 18. There are a lot of unknowns in the race. Nine are republicans, three are farmer-labor standard bearers and two are democrats. There is a bunch of old Anglo-Saxon names to be found in the offering. For instance: Schall, Lundeen, Preus, Burnquist, Steensson, Linbergh, Johnson and Fritsche.

Democrats are in a hopeless minority in Minnesota. There are two contenders for the primary nomination, James A. Carley and Francis C. Cary are the ambitious followers of Thomas Jefferson. A year ago Henrik Shipstead won a senatorial prize in Minnesota. This year the leading farmer-labor candidate is Magnus Johnson who came within a few hundred votes of being elected governor of Minnesota last year. He is a descendant of the Vikings of Norway.

Knute Nelson spent fifty years in the public service and he carried a musket in the Civil War before that in defense of the flag of his adopted country. Another descendant of the Vikings of old may be sent to Washington to share honors with Dr. Henrik Shipstead who is said to be the idol of the combination of voters known as the farmer-labor organization.

Henrik is neither a farmer or a laborer. He is a dentist and the voters who elected him regard him as a ripe statesman, an economist of distinction and a financier second to none.

Governor William A. Brittan of Illinois says that when congress meets he will, on the first day, introduce a bill to permit the manufacture of beer and light wine, the taxes to pay for the soldiers' bonus. Publicity.

MEN AND MONEY

A Washington correspondent, speaking of the New York situation, tells this to the readers of his newspaper: "The drys will endeavor to put a new enforcement law through the next legislature, despite the prospect of a veto by Smith and to elect a governor next year who will sign a new bill." A democratic senate and a republican repealed the Mullan-Gage law. Governor Smith signed the repeal bill. There will not be another session of the legislature. In the entire federal prohibition enforcement unit there are only 2,000 agents. It will be up to the congress in December to make a very large appropriation and to give the federal prohibition director additional help. President Harding, Vice President Coolidge and the congressional leaders of the republican party are committed to a drastic enforcement program. Why worry? Texas is as dry as a bat's cave and the prohibition enforcement laws are as drastic as it is possible to write them.

GUARD THE BORDER

Congressman A. J. Smith of Illinois in an open letter says large numbers of European immigrants are being brought to Canada, Mexico and Cuba, on the misrepresentation that they can easily leave these countries and enter the United States. He points out that the law has recently been changed and that no immigrant can be admitted into the United States unless he or she has resided in the countries named for at least five years and then only if they comply with the immigration laws.

Congressman Sabath should direct his warning to agents of the foreign shipping companies on the other side. There are immigrants who are smuggled from Mexico into the United States. There is only one way to keep them out. Patrol riders are needed on the American side of the Rio Grande. A limited number of immigration officials at the ports of entry cannot prevent their coming.

"My heart is in the grave," was the lament of William Jennings Bryan, following the adjournment of the San Francisco convention. Now he is ready for another frontal attack on the skeleton of John Barleycorn.

The Tangle

LETTER FROM MRS. MARY ALDEN FRESHOTT TO HER SON, JOHN ALDEN FRESHOTT

MY DEAR BOY:

I cannot resist writing you although you have not answered my last letter, but I am sure I know the reason why. You are too proud, son, to confide in your mother.

She understands you, John, better than anyone else in the world. All mothers understand. John, if children would only take their mother's advice often they would be able to avoid much trouble.

I would not write you this, only dear Priscilla Bradford has been in New York for a week and she wrote me that the other night she saw Leslie at the Midnight Follies with Karl Whitney. They were alone and Leslie seemed just backing in the devoted attentions of that rich young Lutheran. Dear Priscilla says that Leslie had on a low-cut gown with her arms bare.

Have you quarreled with Leslie, John? Why did she meet this old-time lover of hers in New York?

Dear Priscilla said she knew that you were not in town as Leslie looked so perfectly unattached and fancy free.

Oh John! I did not tell you so, but I felt that you were making a great mistake when you married this pleasure-loving, frivolous girl. Dear Priscilla tells me that in this public place Leslie was smoking a cigarette and that she also followed that shameless custom which many foolish women pursue of tugging and powdering her face where all may see.

Dear Priscilla wrote me that she even took out a stick of red paint and smeared it over her lips, and that she evidently asked Karl Whitney if it were put on properly, for she made a little pointing motion with her lips and he nodded with a smile. Then they floated off in a dance.

John, I believe that I am telling you might be made of enough importance for you to secure a divorce from your misguided wife and I am sure that, notwithstanding her great reluctance, dear Priscilla would tell this on the witness stand if you should deem it necessary for her to do so. Dear Priscilla has never been one to try to avoid a duty no matter how repugnant it was to her gentle soul.

You know that as a rule I do not believe in divorce, but I know that you are suffering and unhappy and I believe that after Time has softened the hurt that Leslie has given your pride, you would realize you never really loved her and you would also realize that there were other girls in the world who were more worthy of you and who could make you happier. The right kind of a girl would never think of looking at another man when once she is married.

I have given the contract for painting the house as I know, being your mother, I had only to ask anything of you, my son, to receive it. If Leslie has left you, you certainly will not contribute to her support. Let her get it from her rich father if she cannot get it from her rich lover.

Write me immediately, John, for I shall be very anxious to know if I am the first one to open your eyes to what is going on in New York and if you and Leslie had quarreled before she left.

Dear Priscilla Bradford tells me that she is going around to the hotels tomorrow and see if either Leslie or Karl Whitney is registered at any one of them.

YOUR MOTHER.

TOMORROW: John Freshott's reply—Enraged at his mother.

Wm. Farnum and Thomas Santschi have not worked together since their famous drama, "The Spoilers," and in that they are here bitter enemies.

LYN HARDING

Lyn Harding, famous actor of England, was persuaded to come to this country to play the part of King Henry VIII, which role he has played more than two hundred times on the spoken stage, in the special production, "When Knighthood Was in Flower." He might have stepped out of life-size painting of that monarch, so clever is his portrayal of that much-married monarch.

Others in the cast other than Miss Davies and Forrest Stanley are exceedingly clever.

"When Knighthood Was in Flower" continues its engagement at the Peoples theater today and Saturday.

Heroines of World War At Chicago Convention

CHICAGO, June 15.—The heroines of the World war had her day in Chicago today.

The Women's Overseas League, composed of Red Cross nurses, Salvation Army lassies, "V" girls, canteen workers, signal corps girls, librarians, entertainers, and others who served with the doughboys in France, opened its annual convention here.

"Service" was the keynote of the convention, as the girls gathered from all parts of the country with the announced purpose of "rededicating themselves to the work begun 'over there'."

The convention, lasting four days, will be featured by a memorial service in honor of the 146 girls who lost their lives in France. The service will be conducted by the Rev. John Timothy Stone, of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Chicago.

Plans for cooperation with the Veterans' bureau and the American Legion for rehabilitation of the ex-service men was to be the chief business before the convention. The overseas girls also planned to hold themselves in readiness for any national or local emergency and to co-operate with the Red Cross.

Gen. John J. Pershing was the guest of honor at the convention.

FASHIONABLE SLEEVES.

The circular cuffs which have been effectively used on this season's sleeve are multiplying and frequently one sees four or five where one used to grow. Indications are that sleeves for fall are to be extremely elaborate.

JEWELS IN COLOR SHOULD HARMONIZE WITH MILADY'S EYES AS WELL AS FROCKS

TAINT frocks with deep berthas brought the brooch back. Women lucky enough to possess old fashioned cameo or antique mosaics or any of the hundred and one large breast- once worn, are carefully taking them out of their little trunks and having them cleaned and safety fastenings on them.

"Costume jewels" are in vogue and sets, included in which the brooch, the earrings, bracelets, ring and necklace, are much in demand.

Speaking of jewels, fashion's latest decree is that jewelry should match a woman's eyes in color as well as being in harmony with her frock. The color of a black frock is that yes one's imagination should scope in the matter of brooches and other accessories. Some people every necklace is laid out by a jeweler for a piece of black velvet to intensify every shade and hue.

Color of the gown is very important when everybody is talking about "costume jewels" and "fining your jewelry in your color of dressing" and everything that. Since it is smart to wear jewelry, most of us have to stop consider. Not many women can afford to buy a pair of earrings, a necklace and a dozen bracelets.

And why the black gown is as king to the jewel lover as the jewel bit of black velvet is to the jewel themselves. You can wear your jewels with it, no matter what are—emeralds, rubies or sapphires—and you can have a variety of jewelry in semi-precious stones, because you would rather do that than have a dozen different gowns.

There are some rather startling ones of exaggerated length. The neck and pendant are so long that reach almost to the shoulder. Earrings measure as much as inches from the ear stone to the end of the tassels drop, and are with filigree metal and colored in many cases matching pendant and bracelets.

Other type of earring is oriental; design radically different from the old ones, but the drop is made with a relief design in leaves, flowers tinted in color and set with small stones to give oriental effect. Search and shiny motifs are in combination with the stones. A cone shaped earring is called for, it is said, and a earring that is very interesting, the chain on the outer side long and shortening to the ear.

Chains ranging from 60 to 100 inches, also are featured. These of Chinese make and all sorts of in the ball types. It is the number, however, that is preferred, as the color is that in vogue this season. The ruby is made up in this way, owing to the fact that its color is unusual in the dull raspberry. It is well liked. The old amber is treated in the same way. There is a demand for glass beads and new ones of gaudy, hand painted and displayed.

Blue lazuli and sapphires make eyes look like a high altitude in June. Jade on emeralds with a successful six of any woman's eyes of that changeable gray takes the color of its environment. Topaz will turn any woman's eyes into a tawny tawny, the black eyed woman can dress in rubies and bloodstones.

If you ever see a blonde wear a necklace who didn't look as though never had heard a cross word or at anything she didn't like? That's the thing about jewelry—they put a woman to vary her type of jewelry when she gets tired of herself.

SENATE PASSES TWO MEASURES

House Disposes of Threat of Third Extra Session

AUSTIN, June 11.—Conference report on the general educational bill, carrying total of $11,000,000 for two years, was adopted in the senate, 22 to 1, Thursday morning. The bill carries a cut of slightly more than $600,000 from the previous session voted bill. Senator Murphy of Harris voted against the bill.

Conference report on the eleemosynary bill, making reduction of $302,000 from the previous bill, was adopted in the senate, 22 to 0, Thursday morning.

Only agreement by conference committee, on the departmental bill, held up over an item of less than $50,000 for state parks, and adoption of the conference report remains for the senate to complete its work of the session.

Threat Extra Session?
By adopting the free conference report on the emergency school bill which reduces the appropriation from $6,000,000 to $4,000,000 the house today probably thwarted another extra session. It is generally believed now the governor will not call another session immediately but will wait until it is seen whether enough reductions have been made to bring the appropriations within the available revenues.

The report was adopted by a vote of 74 to 42 after extended debate. The lower house also adopted free conference reports on the University of Texas land acquisition bill, the reclamation bill and the rural aid bill.

NAVY BAND WINS VOYAGE TO ALASKA

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The prize syndicators of the navy band will help caliver President Harding's cruise to Alaska aboard the transport Henderson.

Thirty of the navy band's best will make the trip, much to the disgust of U. S. marine band tooters, who had hoped to get that privilege.

The navy musicians will play as an orchestra or a jazz band. They are experts either way.

After the return from Alaska, they will return to Washington by rail, stopping at a dozen big cities enroute for concerts.

Jose E. Olivares, 24, one of this year's grads from the Annapolis Naval Academy, is the first Filipino ever to finish a course at the academy. He was born at Iloilo, P. I., studied at the College of Engineering of the Philippines for a year and then entered Annapolis.

HAM AND HOWARD FACE GRAVE COURT CHARGES

MIDLAND, Texas, June 15.—W. S. Ham, 26, and W. P. Howard, 26, who were indicted by a grand jury at Barstow last Tuesday in connection with the death of C. V. Nixon, taxi-driver of El Paso, in June, 1920, will go to trial Monday, June 18th at Barstow. Both men are charged with murder. Judge Charles Gibbs of the 70th judicial district will preside.

It is alleged by District Attorney Burge Holt that Ham has made a confession, implicating Howard in the death of Nixon. Howard has so far refused to make any comment. The defendants will be represented by John Howard of Pecos, Dan Jackson of El Paso, and J. F. Cunningham of Abilene. W. J. Cunningham, no relation to the attorney of the same name for the defense, will assist District Attorney Burge Holt in the prosecution.

It is alleged that the defendants engaged Nixon who was a taxi-driver at El Paso, to drive them to the oil fields at Ranger where the defendants expected to obtain employment. At the Sand Hills near Monahans and east of Barstow, it is alleged that one of the defendants under a ruse of doing some prospecting, took a shovel and dug a grave. Nixon was then shot, his body buried, and car taken. Three months later coyotes dug the skeleton of Nixon up.

Neither she nor her sixty-five children and grandchildren know a thing.

The next place the Choo-Choo Land Express stopped was Game Town.

"All out for Game Town," called Mister Punch, the conductor, when the little train slowed down.

"Will we have time to look for Ruby Joan, my lost rag-doll?" asked Nancy anxiously as she and Nick got off.

Mister Punch looked at his big silver watch and then nodded his head.

"Yes, ma'am," he said, "we have to get water here in our engine to make steam with, so you will have a little while to look about and inquire. I hope you have good luck," he added kindly.

"Thank you," said Nick sweetly, as she and Nick started off.

They crossed some Green Gravel and came to London Bridge which they crossed also.

The first person they met was Lady-Locket-Who-Lost-Her-Pocket.

"Did you see Ruby Joan?" asked Nancy. "Ruby Joan is my rag-doll. She's lost. She has shoe button eyes, a patch-work dress, polka-dot stockings and hair that's painted on."

"No, I didn't see her," said Lady Locket. "But there in Grand Mammy Tippy Toe, ask her."

"So the Twins asked the old lady, but neither she nor her sixty-five children and grandchildren know a thing."

Mr. Blind-Man-Bluff came along just then, tripping the ground with a stick.

"Please, sir, did you see Ruby Joan?" asked Nancy. "She's lost."

"Why, how could I see her?" asked the blind man in surprise.

"That's so," said Nancy. "I don't see."

"But here's Puss-in-the-Corner. Ask him," advised the Blind Man.

But Puss knew nothing either. Not a thing.

Just then the Twins heard a Toot! Toot!

Back they ran and caught the Choo-Choo Land Express just as it was leaving.

Hubby Gives Blood To Save Wife's Life

CHICAGO, June 15.—Retributive justice swiftly overtook Theodore Marfy here when he was forced to contribute a pint of blood in transfusion, to save the life of his wife, whose throat he had attempted to cut, when she turned over her week's wages to their son for safekeeping.

Marfy is 35 and his wife is 30. Marfy did not work and his wife had to earn the living for the family, combining her earnings with those of their son.

After she had given the son her wages, Marfy leaped upon her and slashed her with a razor and then fled. The woman was rushed to a hospital, where surgeons said the only hope of saving her life was the transfusion of blood. About this time the police had captured Marfy.

"This man will furnish the blood," the police announced.

"Have you his consent?" asked the surgeons.

"Consent hell!" He is responsible and must pay," announced the detectives as they dragged him to the operating table and held him.

"She'll live," announced the surgeons, as the police took the husband to a cell.

California Scribes Form Dubious Club

WATSONVILLE, Cal., June 15.—An unique club of newspaper writers was organized in this city a few weeks ago and already has a membership consisting of practically every editor and staff writer in the counties of Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey and Santa Clara. It is called the "Fill-the-Hole" club, the name being an adaptation of a phrase familiar in all news rooms, as referring to the process of filling the empty columns with news and other matters of interest to the readers.

Rudolph A. Wilson, news editor of the Watsonville Register, is president; L. C. Kellenberger and Deane H. Townes of Gilroy and Salinas, respectively, vice presidents, and Lollin G. Watkins of Monterey, secretary-treasurer. The club has no constitution or by-laws and collects no dues or assessments. Its members meet monthly at one of the towns in the various counties for a get-together dinner and talkfest, the expenses being paid by the "Dutch treat" plan.

CAN'T UNDERSTAND COUNCILMAN'S LINGO

BUEENOS AIRES, July 15.—Election of an Arab, who cannot speak a word of Spanish or any language except Arabic, to the city council of Mendoza, has served to call attention to an unusual influx of foreigners, who have been crowding the steerages of trans-Atlantic liners at the rate of 15,000 a month, to take advantage of the ease with which citizenship papers can be secured here.

Immigration has been particularly heavy recently from Central European countries, while the Germans have held third position, Italians coming first and Spaniards second. Large numbers of Russians, chiefly agitators, also have been landing here during the last few months, and have shown an inclination to immediately mix in political affairs.

One of the difficulties of the Arab's position is the fact that no other city official is able to understand a word of Arabic, which did not, however, prevent the new councilman from making what is said to have been a brilliant speech upon his induction into office.

Man Charged With Brown Killing Is to Get Trial June 27

EASTLAND, Texas, June 15.—Trial of L. A. Starkey, indicted by a grand jury on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Elmer D. (Pet) Brown, near Cisco, has been set for June 27 in district court here.

Brown, a prominent wrestler and road contractor, was killed at his construction camp east of Cisco May 5. Starkey has been at liberty under $7,500 bond since his indictment.

POLISH FAMILY GETS WEALTHY INHERITANCE

WARSAW.—All the lucky Poles with rich relatives in the United States seem to live in Chonctolova. During recent years several citizens of this town have inherited large sums of money from American Poles, but it appears that the biggest fortune of all has just fallen to the members of a family of the name of Holich, in moderate circumstances, who are reported to have inherited $30,000,000 from Frank Holich, of Buffalo, N. Y.
